

Popular Couple to Be Married in June

MAJOR RALEIGH T. DANIEL.

MISS VERA PEARL SNEAD.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Weldon, N. C., May 25.—The wedding of Major Raleigh T. Daniel, of Weldon, and Miss Vera Pearl Snead, of Fluvanna county, Va., on June 12, will be a society event of great interest, adding another link in the chain which binds so closely together Virginia and North Carolina. The ceremony will take place at Fork Union Baptist Church, Fork Union, at 12 M. The bride-elect is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Snead, and is a society of marked ability. She is one of the most popular young women of Fluvanna county, and is descended from the influential Jones and Snead families of that county. Major Daniel is a young man of prominence in this community. He is paymaster of the Third Regiment, North Carolina National Guard, and is secretary and treasurer of the A. C. House Lumber Company. He is a brother of Hon. Walter E. Daniel, who married Miss Jeannette Snead, of Fluvanna county, some years ago, and who is now strong in the race for Lieutenant-Governor of North Carolina.

Society:

(Continued from Second Page.)
Spending several months here, left last week for Scottsville.

Mrs. John Watkins, of Chestfield, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Haskins Hobson, in Powhatan county.

Mrs. Harriet Hilton-Peck, daughter of Colonel Charles Hilton, of Haverstraw, N. Y., is visiting her uncle, H. M. Cassell, in this city.

Miss Cora Fields, of Baltimore, arrived Friday to be the guest of Mrs. Ella Blinford at the Chesterfield.

Mrs. Ernest H. Cooby has returned to the city after spending ten days in New York and Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Belvin have returned from an extended Western trip, visiting San Francisco, Los Angeles and other cities of interest.

Mrs. Cornelius Swink, of Roanoke, is visiting Mrs. K. B. Savage, of 112 East Main Street.

Miss Leone Belle Davis, daughter of Mrs. W. E. Davidson, of Farmville, is the guest of Mrs. J. T. Wright, of Brookland Park.

HOT SPRINGS

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Hot Springs, Va., May 25.—After a six weeks' tour of the South, where he attended a series of clay pigeon shooting tournaments and won numerous cups and trophies, John Philip Sousa arrived at Hot Springs early in the week on his way to New York. He visited Charlotte, N. C.; Macon, Americus and Columbus, Ga.; New Orleans; Laurel and Greensboro, Miss.; Birmingham and Montgomery, Ala.

Step Around the Corner—Save
$1.00 to $3.50.

Graduation Time
Is Near at Hand

The hopes and hours of hard study find their realization and satisfaction. The Sweet Girl Graduate is the centre of attraction. To this young lady we bid a hearty welcome. Come and see our extensive display of White Boots and Pumps, Dainty Patent and Dull Colonials. Every style the acme of shoe perfection.

Our Prices Has Made Us Famous

No More $2.50 No Less

We delight in adding to your costume—always feel as all our other customers do.

The Colonial Shoe Shop
employs courteous clerks and pleases their customers

No More—$2.50—No Less

Colonial Shoe Shop

Opposite Miller & Rhoads, 209 N. 6th Street

John Mundell Smith, Mgr.

Charge Accounts Solicited

Dreyfus &amp; Co.

BROAD AT SECOND

Our Great Marked-Down Sale
Of Women's Gowns and Dresses

In this sale we present the most remarkable dress opportunity of the season. At radical reductions there are offered New York's smartest Gowns, Afternoon Dresses and Street Frocks—INCLUDING EVERY SILK DRESS IN STOCK

Regular $15.00
to $18.50
values

$9.75

Every popular material: Crepe meteor, charmeuse, satin crepe,
plain and chameleon taffetas,
laces and marquises.

Sale of
Wash
Dresses

For Street and House
Wear

$1.50, $2.00, $2.50
$3.50, $5.95 to
$15.00

An exceptionally large showing of the most attractive styles in Wash Dresses for street and house wear at the above prices. It includes dresses of Anderson gingham, tissue gingham, percales, lawns, dimities, voiles and French and Irish linens in white and all shades. These dresses are marked at prices that will create enthusiastic buying here this week.

MALVERN HILL

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Malvern Hill, Va., May 25.—Mr. and Mrs. R. Bassett, of Rockport, Maine, who have been visiting in this neighborhood for several days, left on Tuesday for their home.

C. S. Clark and C. A. Tanner, of Richmond, returned home on Monday from a visit to the former's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Clark, at "Hardens."

Miss Frances Carter, superintendent of the Martha Washington Hospital in Washington, D. C., is paying a visit to her brother and sisters at "High Hills."

Miss Helen Speer spent Saturday in Richmond.

Miss Sue Jones, of "Evelynston," who taught the past school term in Urbanna, returned to her home this week.

Edward C. Harrison has returned to his home, "Neston," to visit to his cousin, George C. Ruffin, at "Tar Bay," in Prince George county.

Herbert Palmer, who has been the guest of John Ruffin for the past month, left this week for his home in South Carolina.

John Ruffin, Jr., who has been attending school in Urbanna during the past two years, returned home this week. Mr. Ruffin was the guest of his aunt, Mrs. Valentine Jones, at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Bell have returned home from a visit of several days in Richmond.

Mrs. J. M. Gill has returned from a visit to Richmond.

T. W. Clark, of "Hardens," spent Saturday last in Richmond.

DANVILLE

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Danville, Va., May 25.—A beautiful reception was given on Thursday last by Mrs. A. B. Griggs, of "Piney," at Mrs. Griggs's residence on Green Street. The guests began arriving at half-past 5 o'clock, and were received in the hall by Mrs. Griggs, William and Miss Mary Ayres, who were assisted in introducing the guests to the receiving party by Mrs. Alice Burton and Mrs. George Temple. The parlor was exquisitely decorated in white and green. The receiving party was Mrs. A. B. Griggs, Mrs. O. I. Estes, Mrs. W. H. Davis, Miss Cochar and Mrs. Henry Griggs.

In the dining-room the prevailing tone of color was pink and white. Mrs. W. D. Overby presided, assisted by Mrs. John Swanson and Mrs. J. C. Hunt. William and Miss Mary Ayres, assisted by Mrs. George Robinson, Mrs. V. D. Smith, Mrs. Bruce James and Mrs. E. Griggs. During the evening delightful refreshments were served, and the 300 people who called were charmed with their evening's enjoyment. Speaking for the party were Mrs. G. K. Griggs and Mrs. Massie.

A rare musical treat was afforded the music lovers of Danville when John Powell, the famous pianist, gave a recital in the auditorium of the Rison Park School on Tuesday night. It was a society event, and most of Danville's musically cultured people were there. The program, a powerful one, was characterized by playing never before equaled in the history of musical entertainments in this city. At the termination of each number Mr. Powell was greeted with rounds of applause, and he was showered with floral gifts, among which figured a beautiful basket of pink roses given by the members of the Music Study Club. A large bunch of mountain laurel was formally presented to the pianist by Harry E. Feltner, who in a few words thanked him on behalf of the Danville audience for the magnificent performance, and paying a high tribute to his wonderful powers as a musician. He played two encores, "The Sleigh Ride," by Technowski, and the "Banjo Pickers," taken from Mr. Powell's suite. His program included the three movements of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata," Schumann's "Etudes Symphoniques," and his "Nocturne" in E. Chopin's minor Mazurka, "Study On the Black Keys," and B. minor Scherzo; Liszt's "Dance of the Gnomes," and Hungarian Rhapsody (4).

Handsome invitations have been sent out from the Roanoke Institute to the commencement exercises, which take place in the college auditorium May 25 to May 29. The baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. W. C. James, of Richmond.

Miss Eloise Nolting, of Baltimore, is the guest of Mrs. W. G. Higgins, on South Main Street.

Mrs. L. S. Patrick has left the city to visit her son, Claude Patrick.

Mrs. W. J. Jordan and little daughter, Lightfoot, are the guests of Mrs. Julian Robinson.

Mrs. F. W. Hagerdorn is in Atlantic City. She will visit in Washington and return home during the coming week.

Mrs. John W. Carter is the guest of her mother in Richmond for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. John L. Hagan has returned from a visit to friends in Fredericksburg.

Professor Earl Holt, of Oak Ridge Institute, has been in the city several days, the guest of Professor Fleet Mayberry.

Mrs. I. B. Anderson is visiting her son, Talbot Anderson, in St. Louis.

Mrs. W. B. Hill has returned from a visit to relatives in North Carolina.

Mrs. Harry Vase, of Winston-Salem, is the guest of Miss Bessie Carter on Paxton Street.

Colonel P. H. Dillard spent Sunday in Winston-Salem with his wife, who is visiting their daughter, Mrs. J. Kent Shepherd, after spending several weeks with Mrs. Haigh Dangerfield in Charlotte.

R. A. Davis spent several days last week in Richmond.

Smoothest,
Softest
Talcum Powder
Made
10¢ a box
Air-Float
TALC
Borated, Delightfully Perfumed, White or Peach
Tint. Guaranteed pure by
TALCUM PUFF CO., Makers and Manufacturers
Bush Terminal Bldg., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Clearance Sale of Suits

Every suit reduced—by reason of which we offer nearly 250 suits
at astonishing price cuts

They come in the finest materials, such as whipcords, finest men's wear serges, men's worsteds, men's wear suitings, the popular two-tone diagonals, Bedford cords, English mixtures, novelty weaves and homespun. They are cut on correct new lines, and carefully made in every detail.

$17.50 and $20.00 Suits.....$12.50

$22.50 and $25.00 Suits.....$16.50

$27.50 and $30.00 Suits.....$19.50

$32.50 and $35.00 Suits.....$24.50

$37.50 and $40.00 Suits.....$29.50

$50.00, $60.00 and $75.00 Suits, in this Sale

1000 New Inexpensive Lingerie
Blouses, Priced from $1.00 to $2.50

A splendid selection of styles in either low neck or high neck—very effective in lace and embroidered combinations—many trimmed with real hand crocheted lace and are exceptionally attractive—

$1.00, $1.50, $2.50

POWHATAN

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Powhatan, Va., May 25.—Robert Flanagan was the recent guest of his mother, Mrs. H. T. Flanagan, here.

Mrs. L. J. Davis, of Clifton Forge, are the guests of the former's parents here.

Miss Eleanor Wingfield, of Richmond, is visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Lovelena Mosby, who has been visiting Mrs. T. M. Miller here, has returned to Richmond.

Miss Blanche Clements is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. C. Barton, here this week.

Miss Nannie Reynolds, who has been visiting relatives at Woodland Heights, has returned to her home here.

Miss Kate Flanagan, of Cumberland, was the recent guest of relatives in the village.

Miss Eunice Winfree, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. M. Nichols, has returned to her home near Duxbury.

Marshall Justis, who has been attending the Fork Union Academy, has returned to his home here.

Mrs. R. D. Tucker, who has been visiting relatives in Richmond, has returned to her home here.

RADFORD

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
Radford, Va., May 25.—Mr. and Mrs. John L. Vaughan, of Shawsville, were the guests at the West End Hotel this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pulliam, of Washington, D. C., were the guests of Miss Dess Bullard Monday.

Henry McFarlane, of Roanoke, spent a few days in town this week.

Mrs. Robert Schott spent Wednesday in Roanoke.

Gilbert White, of Johnson City, spent last Wednesday in town.

The Misses Lane and Mr. Lane spent Tuesday in Roanoke.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elstine and children spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Elstine.

Mrs. Lucy Ammon, of Salem, is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. O. Bullard.

Miss Dess Bullard returned last Saturday from Washington, D. C.

Mr. Amis, of Roanoke, spent the week in town.

T. J. Ballard spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Shawsville.

Miss Helen Buford, of Dublin, is visiting the Misses Scott.

Mrs. Eugene Adams, of New York, arrived last Thursday to visit at her home.

Rev. and Mrs. Whitmore are visiting Mr. Whitmore's father in Charlottesville.

Miss Grogan, of Pulaski, visited her sister, Mrs. L. E. Miles, last week.

R. H. Fishburne, of Roanoke, visited his cousin, Mrs. D. Taylor Martin, last week.

M. F. Peters was in Roanoke last week.

G. A. Lane, of V. I. C., visited his son at the West End Hotel this week.

Ellis Inks gave a lecture Saturday afternoon at the Music Club Hall, which was greatly enjoyed by all.

To-morrow
Wash
Skirts
In Many Styles
$2.25, $2.50, $3.00
$3.50 and $5.00

These are skirts that are designed so as to have a very natty appearance and also be easy to launder. Some button entirely down the front, while in many a side opening effect is very neatly set off with pearl buttons. Linen, pique, imported French cordeline, English rep, ratine, etc., are shown in almost endless variety, and there are some very unusual effects in novelty wash serges and other novelty weaves.

The Army of Constipation

Is Growing Smaller Every Day.
CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS are responsible—they not only give relief—they permanently cure Constipation. Millions use them for Biliousness, Indigestion, Sick Headache, Sallow Skin.

SMALL PILL, SMALL DOSE, SMALL PRICE
Genuine must bear Signature

Wm. Wood